

Insurance is your financial back-up plan if you become ill or injured. So it's good to know that if you do need to claim on your policy, you are dealing with a company that pays legitimate claims quickly with a simple, professional and empathetic experience.

Did you know?

Asteron paid the first life insurance claim in Australia over 175 years ago and has been paying claims ever since.

Last year, Asteron paid more than $369 million in total claims to around 6,200 customers Australia-wide. That means paying around $1 million a day to Australian families when they need it most.

Of these claims, more than $172 million was paid out on individual policies; $95 million as a result of death, trauma and total and permanent disablement; and the remaining $77 million paid to income protection and business expenses policy holders. A further $197 million was paid to policy holders under group insurance schemes.
