ING wins Life Company of the Year. Again.

On Thursday 16 July, Australia's key financial services institutions gathered at the ceremony for the AFR Smart Investor Blue Ribbon Awards 2009.

The awards recognise excellence in investment, finance, banking and insurance. To the public, they've come to symbolise a premier product and service offering - one endorsed by Australia's leading monthly investment publication.

For the second consecutive year, ING has been named AFR Smart Investor's Life Company of the Year.

This win bears testament to the continued strength of ING – even during these turbulent economic times.
