Changes to AIA Australia Adviser Services Team

Melbourne 22 January 2010: AIA Australia today announced that two senior members of its Adviser Services team, Niall McConville and David Mounsey, will be leaving the Company and will cease their roles today.

As a result, AIA Australia can implement some important management changes that will better position the company to reach its strategic and corporate governance objectives.

AIA Australia will soon announce replacements for these roles and some new appointments to its Adviser Services team.
