3. Class of members that fall within this target market

The information below summarises the overall class of members that fall within the target market for the Protect Super Plan 2.

The Protect Super Plan 2 has been designed for consumers who:

- Are seeking Life Cover and/or Total and Permanent Disability cover and/or Income Support Cover in the event they are unable to meet their financial commitments to themselves or their dependants in the event of death, illness, severe injury or sickness;
- Have an accumulation superannuation account to pay for insurance premiums via a rollover from their superannuation fund;

The Protect Super Plan 2 has not been designed for consumers who:

- Are looking to contribute and invest in a superannuation fund to provide for their retirement;
- Want to receive a retirement or transition to retirement income stream;
- Do not receive financial advice from an authorised financial adviser with a recommendation to obtain the insurance cover; and
- Do not meet our underwriting requirements.

Product description and key attributes

Key eligibility requirements

The key eligibility requirements of the Protect Super Plan 2 are for consumers who are:

- Aged between 18 to 60 (except for Life Cover which is up to 75 years old);
- Employed and working at least 20 hours per week at the time of application and must successfully meet the underwriting requirements (for Total and Permanent Disability and Income Support Cover only); and
- Australian residents.

Key attributes

The key attributes of Protect Super Plan 2 include the following:

- various levels of cover and rates subject to underwriting;
- option to increase sum insured annually without underwriting under indexation benefit;
- ability to increase cover without having to be underwritten upon certain specified events;
- binding death benefit nomination; and
- waiver of premiums while involuntarily unemployed for up to three months.

Objectives, financial situation, and needs

The table below sets out the class of consumers that each insurance option within the Protect Super Plan 2 has been designed for.

Life Cover	Consumers that may have outstanding financial debts and financial commitments (including financial commitments to dependents such as spouse or children) that will not be satisfied by their estate in the event of their death or terminal illness.
Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Cover	Consumers seeking to protect their financial position to cover potential debt, cost of living, medical, transport and housing expenses should they become totally and permanently disabled.
Income Support Cover	Consumers that need to replace their income in the event they are unable to earn their income (or are only able to earn a lower income) due to an event which causes them to be unable to earn their pre-disability income, whether due to sickness, illness or accident.

Consistency between the target market and the product

The Protect Super Plan 2 is consistent with the target market as it offers consumers the ability to financially protect themselves or their dependants in the event they are unable to earn an income, whether due to death, illness, severe injury or sickness, or accident.

4. How this fund is to be distributed

Distribution channels

The Protect Super Plan 2 is designed to be distributed through financial advisers providing advice to consumers seeking insurance cover in the event they are unable to meet their financial commitments to themselves or their dependants in the event of death, illness, severe injury or sickness.

Distribution conditions

The Protect Super Plan 2 should only be distributed through financial advisers providing advice to consumers.

Adequacy of distribution conditions and restrictions

Consumers can only join Protect Super Plan 2 through a qualified financial adviser and must meet the eligibility criteria and underwriting requirements.
